SUNDAY, JANUARY 17, 2016 33rd SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST — Tone 8. Venerable and Godbearing Father Anthony the Great (356). Ven. Anthony of Dymsk (Novgorod—ca. 1224). Ven. Anthony of Chernoezérsk (16th c.)

TROPARIA

(Tone 8) Thou didst descend from on high, O Merciful One! Thou didst accept the three day burial to free us from our sufferings! O Lord, our Life and Resurrection: glory to Thee!

(Tone 4) You imitated the ways of zealous Elijah, and followed the straight path of John the Baptist. You became a desert dweller and strengthened the world by your prayers. Father Anthony, intercede with Christ God that our souls may be saved.

(Tone 4) In truth you were revealed to your flock as a rule of faith, a model of meekness, and teacher of abstinence, so you won the heights by humility, and riches by poverty, O Holy Father Nicholas, intercede with Christ God to save our souls.

KONTAKION

(Tone 1) By Thy Nativity Thou didst sanctify the Virgin's womb! And blessed Simeon's hands, O Christ God. Now Thou hast come and saved us through love. Grant peace to all Orthodox Christians, O only Lover of Man!

The Prokeimenon in the Seventh Tone: Precious in the sight of the Lord / is the death of His saints.
v: What shall I render unto the Lord for all that He hath rendered unto me?

THE READING FROM THE EPISTLE OF THE HOLY APOSTLE PAUL TO THE HEBREWS (13:17-21) Brethren: Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you. Pray for us; for we are confident that we have a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably. But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner. Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia, Tone 8

v. Come let us rejoice in the Lord! Let us make a joyful noise to God our Savior!

v. Let us come before His face with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!

THE READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT LUKE (17:12-19) At that time, as Jesus entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then said Jesus, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

COMMUNION HYMN

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

This Parish Health Inventory Model (PHIM) is especially useful to healthy parishes who wish to review and assess their strengths and weaknesses and to identify and focus on areas that may need improvement.

plateaued parishes that are neither growing, nor diminishing, but find the need to propel forward. The PHIM can help discern what such parishes "could be" by stimulating ideas and renewing commitment.

parishes in early decline in which some members see the need for change even though the symptoms of decline are not readily noticed. The PHIM attempts to describe one version of a stronger future.
 parishes in peril, stuck in “yesterday” without a vision of tomorrow or existing in a state of denial, may experience a useful “nudge” by simply discussing one or two portions of the PHIM, allowing the parish to face facts and to develop a sense of urgency about its future.
 parishes in transition—that is, parishes awaiting the arrival of a new pastor that wish to assess their current situation, where they wish to go, and how to share their vision with newly assigned clergy.

A word of caution.

While many Orthodox Christian parishes have used the PHIM as a framework for discussions on renewal and expanding their mission, it is critical to keep in mind that the Model is not a catechism. While the Model has formative value for parish leaders, parishioners and clergy, it is not designed to teach the Orthodox faith. It is a collection of good practices and principles that have worked well in many parishes.

one model, not the model. Disagreeing with or rethinking the contents can be useful and healthy. On the other hand, we caution users not focus solely on disproving the contents, as there is abundant evidence that most ideas are effective when properly contextualized.

a point of access to a broader view of good practice. The PHIM was developed with the input of a dozen rectors from growing parishes. As a result, the items in the Inventory provide a partial view into the life of a number of vibrant parishes—a resource not readily available to most clergy and laity.

not the next “big thing.” There are those who reject using any resource simply because it appears to be “oversold” or “hyped.” Heed well. The Inventory is not a “silver bullet.” It is a tool that, when used well, can help accelerate action, build consensus and raise the quality of the discussion. Ultimately, you must still “do the work!”
