JANUARY 2021

ON THE BAPTISM OF CHRIST (HYMN SIX) BY ST. EPHRAIM THE SYRIAN

Blessed be He Who was baptized that He might baptize you, that you should be absolved from your offenses! The Spirit came down from on high — and hallowed the waters by His brooding.— In the baptism of John, —He passed by the rest and abode on One:— but now He has descended and abode — on all that are born of the water.. Out of all that John baptized— on One it was that the Spirit dwelt:— but now He has flown and come down — that He may dwell on the many — and as each after each comes up — He loves him and abides on him. A marvel it is that surpasses all!— To the water He went down and was baptized.— The seas declared it blessed, — that river wherein You were baptized:— even the waters that were in heaven envied — because they were not worthy to be Your bath. A marvel it is, O my Lord, now also — that while the fountains are full of water — it is the water of baptism— that alone is able to atone. — Mighty is the water in the seas — yet is it too weak for atonement. Your might, O my Lord, if it abides — within the humble it exalts him — like as royalty if it abide — within the desert gives it peace.— Water by Your might has triumphed — over sin, for Life has encompassed it. The sheep exulted when they saw — the hand draw near to baptize them.— Receive, O you sheep, your sealing; enter and be mingled in the flock!— for more than over all the flock — over you rejoice the Watchers today. The Angels and the Watchers rejoice— over that which is born of the Spirit and of water:— they rejoice that by fire and by the Spirit— the corporeal have become spiritual. — The Seraphim who sing “Holy” rejoice — that they who are made holy have been increased. For lo! The Angels rejoice— over one sinner if he repent:— how much more do they now rejoice— that in all churches and congregations — lo! Baptism is bringing forth — the heavenly from the earthly! The baptized when they come up are sanctified;— the sealed when they go down are pardoned.— They who come up have put on Glory— they who go down have cast off sin.— Adam put off his glory in a moment — you have been clothed with glory in a moment. A house that is of dust when it has fallen — by means of water can be renewed:— the body of Adam that was of dust — which had fallen by water has been renewed.— Lo! The priests as builders — afresh renew your bodies. A great marvel is this of the wool — that it can take every dye — as the mind takes every discourse.— By the name of its dye it is called — as you who were —baptized when Hearers,— have gained the name of Recipients. The common waters he sanctified — even Elisha through the Name that is secret.— In them washed the leper openly — and was cleansed by the Power that is secret:— the leprosy was done away in the water, as transgressions in Baptism. Today, lo! Your offenses are blotted out — and your names are written down.— The priest blots out in the water — and Christ writes down in Heaven.— By the blotting out and the writing down — lo! Doubled is your rejoicing. Lo! Mercy has dawned today — and from bound to bound it stretches:— the sun has sunk and mercy has dawned. — Justice has drawn in her wrath; Grace has spread forth her love — lo! she pardons and quickens freely. The sheep that beforetime were in the fold— lo! They hasten forth to greet — the new lambs that have been added to it.— They are white and are clad in white — within and without white are your bodies as your vestments. From every mouth Blessed are you,— on every side Blessed are you.— Sin from you is driven out — and the Holy Spirit on you is dwelling.— The Evil One has become sad of countenance;— the Good God makes glad your countenance. The gift that you have received freely — cease not from watching over it:— this pearl if it shall be lost — cannot again be sought out — for it is like to virginity— which if it be lost is not to be found. May you from all defilement — be kept by the power of your white robes!— and he whose freedom has defiled itself — may it be able to wash itself clean by his weeping!— For me who am servant of the community — may the supplication of the community win pardon! To the author who has toiled in words — be reconciliation in rest!— to the teacher who has toiled with voice — be forgiveness through grace!— to the priest who has toiled in baptizing — let there come the crown of righteousness! From every mouth with one consent, — of those beneath and those above — Watchers, Cherubim, and Seraphim — the baptized, the sealed, and the hearers — let each of us cry aloud and say —Glory to the Lord of our feasts!

FROM FATHER'S DESK

The feast of the baptism of our Lord Jesus (January 6) is called the Feast of Light. We know that Jesus Christ is the light of the world. Jesus came into the world as the light of the world. That light, the Son of God in our midst, was not welcomed by all. Some preferred the darkness. King Herod who was in the darkness of his own jealousy for his power did all he could to kill the Christ child. Yet the light of Christ shone in the world by His presence, even in His death. And the Light who is Christ continues to shine by His presence in us.

When we were baptized we turned from the darkness of the devil, the darkness of sin. Instead we turned to the Light who is Jesus Christ. This happens dramatically before our baptism. Our godparents or if we were adults we, turned away from the altar to face the west, the place where the sun loses its strength, where the light dies and the darkness begins. We faced the darkness and spit upon the devil and all his works and all his service and all his pride. We repudiated the darkness of life without the one true God. Then we turned to face east. We faced the place where the sun rises, where light first begins to overtake the darkness of night. We set our face to the altar, to God's throne on earth.

Then we were washed with the waters of baptism. Then we were united to Christ by the Holy Spirit. Then we became children of God. We became kin to our Lord Jesus Christ and, through Him, to one another. Rather than being joined to one another by a blood relationship, we are joined by a deeper union, the union of being brothers and sisters in Christ. This connection to one another is so profound that godparents can't marry their godchildren. They are now as parent to child so marriage between them is unthinkable. Our baptism is a new life that surpasses earthly categories.

Though we once and for all turned from the darkness of sin to be filled with the light of Christ we still commit sins. We still bear the weakness of our fallen nature. We may struggle daily with some sins that have become habits. But even our sin cannot extinguish Christ in us. Nothing can destroy His presence in us. We can cover Him over with the dirt of sin but He is still there, waiting to shine in us.

Jesus loves us so much that He doesn't give up on us. He doesn't turn His back on us because we turn our backs to Him in order that we may enjoy the darkness of sin. He not only waits for us, He pursues us to bring us back to Him. We may be tempted to give up on ourselves, frustrated with the same sins we commit again and again. But our Lord Jesus does not give up on us. If our Lord loves us this way, how can we say no to Him? We turn again to Him who is the Light of the world when we repent and begin anew. We who sat in the darkness of sin have seen the great light who is our Lord Jesus Christ – we have Him alive in us. We who sat in the shadow of death have become kinsmen to the Life of the world Who lives in us.

On the night of Holy Pascha we stand in the church in darkness, when the sun is gone and night is at its deepest. Then we sing, "Come take light from the Light, who is never overtaken by night! Come, let us glorify Christ, risen from the dead!" And we rush to light our candles from that single candle that represents Christ our true Light who has accomplished all things for us: being born, baptized, the cross, the tomb, the resurrection, the ascension into heaven, even His second and glorious coming.

As we celebrate this feast of Light, this joyous day with the blessing of water let us re-commit ourselves to Jesus Christ our Light. Let us resolve not to be in despair or despondency over our sins, but rush to Him for forgiveness that we may be renewed, and He renewed in us, that we may be His lightbearers in the world, bearers of His image, His mercy and His love.

We are excited at the possibility of not only continuing this January tradition this year, allowing you to participate in Vespers in the Monastery Church and to offer this event to a wider audience (using our online capabilities to invite the whole world to our local event!). More to come in the next few weeks!

NORTH END SOUP KITCHEN Please come & minister to Christ with our brothers & sisters January 7th from 9 am-1 pm. "Feeding the hungry is a greater work than raising the dead." St. John Chrysostom HOUSE BLESSINGS will be different this year. In-person blessing by Father Matthew will not take place, rather, you will take home holy water with you and then sing the Troparion of the Theophany while sprinkling your home with the holy water.

THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet on January 12th @ 6:30 pm. Please call or email the parish office if you are unable to attend this meeting.

PARISH COUNCIL met on Tuesday, December 8 virtually. November saw a dip in parish finances. $10,000 had to be transferred from savings to cover expenses. Please continue your giving whether in person, through Givelify, or by sending in your donation to the office or dropping it off during office hours. The cleaning of the radiators in church has begun to remove any soot or dust before painting begins in January. There is only one compressor for the heating system. It would be best for us to have a back-up compressor. A motion was passed to purchase a back-up compressor for $200. The light outside the storage room door has been flickering and will need to be looked at. Work is completed on the installation of the storage room door. The installation of the new parish council members and auditor will take place on Sunday, December 20. Sharon Jernigan, parish council president, said thank you to Calvin Conrad and Susie Ford for their work on parish council these past three years and extended a welcome to Stephanie Price and Jonathon Shann who also joined the meeting and will be sworn in this month. The next monthly meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 12 at 6:30 pm.

OUTDOOR BLESSING OF WATER will be held on Sunday, January 10th following the Divine Liturgy. Bring your empty bottles to fill with Holy Water. Dress for the weather.

OFFERING ENVELOPES can be picked up at the candle stand. If there are boxes for family members who have not been attending whom you will be seeing this month, please deliver them to help save on postage costs ($5 per box of envelopes).

2021 CALENDARS have arrived and are in the narthex. Please, one per family.

ANNUAL MEETING With the blessing of Archbishop Alexander there is no in-person Annual Meeting this year but all written reports need to be submitted by January 24th. All of the reports will be e-mailed/mailed. If you have any questions, please send them in and the parish council will work to answer them.

from THE PRAYER FOR THE BLESSING OF WATER ON THE THEOPHANY OF OUR LORD

Today paradise is opened to men and the Sun of righteousness illumines us. Today the bitter water that was in the time of Moses is changed into sweetness for the people by the presence of the Lord. Today we are delivered from the ancient lament and are saved as a new Israel. Today we are redeemed from darkness and are illumined with the light of the knowledge of God. Today the mist of the world is cleared by the manifestation of our God. Today all the creation shines with light from on high. Today the deceit has been destroyed and the coming of the Master makes for us a way of salvation. Today those on high keep the feast with those below, and those below commune with those on high. Today the sacred and loud-voiced assembly of the Orthodox rejoices. Today the Master hastens to baptism, so that he lift up humanity on high. Today the Unbowed bows down to his own servant, so that he free us from servitude. Today we have bought a kingdom of heaven, for the kingdom of the Lord will have no end. Today earth and sea share the joy of the universe, and the universe is filled with gladness.
