SAINT ROMANOS THE MELODIST

from his kontakion, on Pentecost

Stanza 2

You were not parted from your disciples, Saviour, when you took the road to heaven, for having reached the things on high, you still hold those below, for not one place is separate from you, O Uncontainable; and were there such, it perishes and vanishes and becomes like Sodom. For you established the universe, filling all things. The apostles therefore had you in their souls. And so, when you had been taken up from the Mount of Olives, they came down dancing and singing and glorifying

the All-Holy Spirit.

Stanza 3

The eleven disciples returned with joy from the Mount of Olives, for Luke, the revealer of sacred mysteries, writes this, They returned to Jerusalem, ascended to then upper room, where they were staying. They entered and sat down – Peter and the rest of the disciples. Kephas, as their leader, said to them, “Sharers of the Kingdom, let our hearts be on high with the One who made the promise and said, ‘I will send you

the All-Holy Spirit.’”

Stanza 4

When he had spoken like this to the apostles, Peter roused them to prayer, and, standing in their midst, cried out, “Let us pray, let us bend the knee, let us ask, let us make this room a church. For so it is and so it has become. Let us sing and cry aloud to God, ‘Send us your good Spirit that he may guide us all into your upright land which you have prepared for those who honour and who glorify the

the All-Holy Spirit.’”

Translation by Archimandrite Ephrem Lash, Kontakia: On the Life of Christ (Harper Collins, San Francisco, 1995).

FROM FATHER'S DESK

On the great day of Holy Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples on the fiftieth day after the resurrection of Messiah Jesus. On this day the apostles speak to people of different languages and - a miracle in the Spirit - the people understand. It is the undoing of the tower of Babel where people, who trust only in themselves thinking to build a tower to heaven, are confused their languages by the Lord, being scattered. Pentecost marks our unity in the Holy Spirit who draws us to the unity which comes with life in Him.

The Holy Spirit comes upon the Mother of God and the men and women disciples in the upper room as an anointing with power - power not for the sake of lording authority over others but the Holy Spirit as power - to proclaim Christ risen from the dead to all nations, regardless of the consequences. We know that many of the early followers of Christ died because they proclaimed Jesus as the anointed one of God - the Christ, the Messiah - the Son of the living God who took on our flesh.

In the Scripture we read that prophets, priests and kings were anointed with oil, anointed by God to serve Him in their rank as prophet, priest or king. Jesus also is anointed and we are calling him "the Anointed One" when we say he is "Messiah" or "Christ" because this is what these words mean - "Anointed." Jesus is anointed by the Holy Spirit. When John baptized Jesus the Holy Spirit came upon him in the form of a dove - witnessed only by John and Jesus. This image is the sign of Jesus' anointing by the Spirit. Full of the Holy Spirit, then, Jesus is led by the same Spirit into the desert where he fasted and prayed for forty days and forty nights.

After the temptation in the desert, Jesus returns to his hometown of Nazareth and in the synagogue reads aloud to the people from the prophecy of Isaiah (61:1-2): "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18-19). The Holy Spirit is upon him as an anointing.

And Jesus promised to his disciples, to us, that He would send upon us the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit of the Truth, the Truth who is Messiah Jesus. (John 14:16-17). And so the Holy Spirit anoints us to become as rivers of living water flowing out of our hearts to water a parched earth.

Beloved, we also are anointed with the Holy Spirit. After our baptism into Christ we are anointed with the holy chrism, the special mixture of oils and aloes and spices, on all our body's senses: our head, our eyes, our nose, our lips, our ears, our heart, our hands, our feet. And the words spoken are: "the seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit." We are sealed with the Holy Spirit as newly illumined followers of Christ. We become little "c" Christs, anointed ones, who in the Spirit are to live such that He lives and breathes and moves in us, that we bear the fruit of the Heavenly King and Comforter who fills us, that we bring His comfort to others, that from our hearts flow the rivers of His very self: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." (Galatians 5:22-23)

Though we are anointed with the Holy Spirit, bearing the fruit of the Spirit is a potential, it is not automatic. The Holy Spirit is also the Spirit of humility who makes His dwelling in us and also lets us drive Him away. We stifle the Spirit in us through our hatred or indifference, through rejoicing over other's failings, through our impatience, rudeness, unreliability, abrasiveness, self-indulgence. Yet we do not have to live this way. The Holy Spirit opens to us the doors of repentance.

We come again and again to the Holy Liturgy and hear the words said to the Father: "send down your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts here offered." The Holy Spirit does come down again and again on us, anointing us with His presence, making us into His tabernacle. Do we understand what He is doing to us, what is happening to us? How the Spirit humbles Himself to anoint us with Himself? How we offer a few cents worth of incense and boldly say to God, "Receive this incense and now give us in return your Holy Spirit." What an exchange! What boldness on our part! What humility of the Holy Spirit!

On the day of Pentecost may the Holy Spirit so anoint us anew that we understand truly Him in us, the heavenly King, the Comforter, the Spirit of the Truth, Who is everywhere present and fills all things; the Treasury of good things, the Giver of life, who comes to tabernacle within us and cleanses us from every impurity, and as the Good One, saves our souls.

PETER SREDICH fell asleep in the Lord on at his home on May 21st. He is the husband of the late Josephine Sredich (+March 24) and the father of Kris (David) George, Mara (Steve) Nowak, and Jana March 24) and the father of Kris (David) George, Mara (Steve) Nowak, and Jana (James) Ragnone. He is also survived by his brother Mike (George) Sredich and seven grandchildren. His funeral took place at church on Monday, May 24th with burial at Great Lakes National Cemetery on Tuesday, May 25th. Bog da prosti! Christ is risen! Hristos vaskrese! Christ God grant him rest in the light of His Face. God sustain his family by His grace. You may read Peter's obituary here.

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE Parish council met in-person on Tuesday, May 11 at 6:30 pm. The parish finances are stable; the financial reports from March and April are positive. Sunday, June 27 we will honor our graduating seniors from high school and college from 2020 and 2021 at the Divine Liturgy with special petitions for them. Seniors are welcome to wear their graduation gowns to this Liturgy. Prayers at the graves will not take place Memorial Day weekend; prayers will take place on the Souls' Saturday, June 19 and Pentecost, June 20, the Church's days for remembering the dead. Details are in the May & June newsletter. Social media outreach looks to be expanded by Stephanie Price, Michelle Gerzevske, and Alexandra Price. Weekend services will continue to be live-streamed and we look to purchase a computer and camera for use in the church. 20 people helped in the clean-up day on May 8 where bushes were trimmed and most of the tables in the pavilion were painted. A crew will be working on painting the children's playscape. The next fundraisers are: rummage sale (June 11-12), Macedonian Open (June 21), car show (August 15). The painting of the interior of the church is slated to begin this week.

MACEDONIAN OPEN GOLF SCRAMBLE The 40th Macedonian Open Golf Scramble will be held this year on Monday, June 21 at the Flint Elks Golf Club. Once again that is the Monday after Father's Day and would make a great Father's Day gift.

“Lord, overshadow Your holy church which has been redeemed by Your Blood; cause to dwell in it Your true peace which You gave to Your holy apostles; bind her children in holy bonds of indissoluble love; may the rebel not have power over her, and keep far from her persecution, tumult, and wars, both from those within and from those without; and may kings and priests be bound together in great peace and love, their minds always filled with gazing towards You; and may the holy faith be a wall for Your flock. And hold me too, the sinner, worthy through their prayers of being preserved always under the mighty protection of Your holy arm - which is Your providential care that encompasses all. Amen.” - Saint Isaac of Nineveh
